2-in-1 Detachable Soundbar

Turn your living room into a home theatre sound system at a fraction of the cost. The SonicBoom's 2-in-1 design lets you enjoy immersive surround sound as either a fully mountable 37-inch soundbar or detached for a dual-speaker stereo setup! Four full-range drivers with 40W of power bring your sound to life for a movie, music, and gaming experience unlike ever before; with 3D surround sound, the audio moves around your room for clear dialog, detailed mids, sparkling highs, and deep dynamic bass performance. Easily switch between 6 audio sources for coaxial or optical digital audio from your TV, streaming music from your phone or tablet with built-in Bluetooth technology, plugging in with an auxiliary cable, or even playing files from USB drives and Micro SD cards! Control volume or switch modes without leaving the couch with a full-function remote control. Get a blast of sound with the SonicBoom!
