

RGB Command Station

Headset Stand + USB Charging

Get command of your battlefield with high-speed charging, expansive connectivity, and dynamic lighting. The RGB Command Station transforms your gaming setup into an organized battle station with a dual headset holder, 2 USB passthrough charging ports, and dynamic RGB lighting to completely control all your gear from one device. Keep all accessories on hand for when you need them, as the stand can hold two of even the largest headsets, so you can always have one ready at any moment. Dual USB charging ports allow you to charge and connect additional devices such as keyboards, mice, or other accessories and sync or transfer data to add an edge to your gaming arsenal. Choose from 6 solid-color and a flashing RGB light effect to illuminate your setup. Gain the ground advantage with the RGB Command Station.
