

STEALTH² ANC \ WIRELESS HEADPHONES

Silence never sounded this good. Featuring potent 40mm neodymium drivers and adaptive Active Noise Cancelling technology, the Stealth2 ANC Wireless Headphones deliver bold sound uncompromised by background distractions. Whether you're commuting on a busy subway, working in a bustling office, or traveling on an airplane, the headphones respond to your environment and block out noise in real time, so all that's left is you and your music. Slip the headphones on and slip into a hidden world of deep, dynamic bass, crisp midrange, and crystal-clear highs that uncover even the subtlest details - and with the upgraded 18-hour all-day ANC battery life, you can say goodbye to middle-of-the-day recharging. Great music requires quiet - why not bring the quiet with you?
